APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Approval of minutes postponed.

FINANCIAL REPORT

Approval of minutes postponed.

COMMUNITY ACTION OFFICER

Officer Ben Harris reported he is completing some training, Crime Analysis that will aid him in better understanding problems in the area. He did report there were 40 less reported crimes this time last year.

The Neighborhood Enforcement Team and Ben are still focusing on Transients in the Alleys.

There is also an extended program for neighbors who go on an extended vacation. Call Mountain View Police Precinct and sign up for a Home Watch.

The city Prosecutor's Office is developing a Misdemeanor Repeat Offender Program. Subject's who are arrested numerous times for misdemeanor violation, such as trespassing will receive enhanced (more time) on sentencing, more on this soon.

The Community with the Cop gathering is on a rotation, please stay tune for the time and location.

BOARD APPOINTMENT

Brad Brauer nominated Leslie Stackpohl for the empty position on the Board as Member at Large. A motion was made by Jason, with Andrea seconding, with the board unanimously approving.

After Leslie was made a member of the board, she was nominated for the position of Treasure. Jason made the motion with Andrea seconding the motion. The Board unanimously approved Leslie to re-take her old position as Treasure.

COMMITTEE UPDATES

- Budget

Home Tour Budget for the 2013 Tour was presented by Andrea. Phil made a motion to approve the budget as presented with John seconding the motion. The board unanimously approved the budget.

Andrea, also updated the Inside Willo expense. Instead of a loss for the month of May, the Inside Willo showed a profit of $124.

OLD BUSINESS

- Landmarks

Don, reported the Landmark Committee is hard at work and their objective is to have permanent landmarks in the new build outs on 3rd and 5th Avenues by 2013 Home Tour.

- Redistricting

The final maps are drawn up by the city and waits for final approval. If the new maps are approved, it looks like the Willo will be moving to Councilman Simplot's district. Any comments can be directed to the City of Phoenix's website.
