

Murals in Historic Neighborhoods?

This past May, murals appeared in several of the historic neighborhoods in Phoenix as part of the PHX Mural Project which was sponsored by local artists (see example in photo above painted on a wall in the Villa Verde Historic District). Concerns have been expressed regarding the murals and their impacts on historic neighborhoods. Some people would like to see these murals regulated or not permitted. You are invited to a meeting to let your opinions be known about the issue.
